Goldsboro' Immigration Meeting.

SATURDAY, Nov. 28, 1868.

Pursuant to the adjournment of the Convention which assembled in Goldsboro' on the 13th inst., to further the question of foreign immigration into North Carolina, that body re-assembled in the Court House, in this place, to-day at 12 o'clock. Dr. S. S. Satchwell, of New Hanover, in the chair.

On motion, Wm. Robinson, Esq., of Wayne, and Major Jno. W. Dunham, of Wilson, were requested to act as Secretaries.

The proceedings of the last meeting were read and approved.

The Chair explained the objects of the meeting to be to perfect the organization of our Immigration Society, and the introduction of immigrants as the only method for the advancement of the material prosperity of the State.

On motion, the Secretary was authorized to enroll the names of the delegates present.

The Hon. Wm. T. Dortch, chairman of the committee, appointed for the purpose of preparing an address setting forth the inducements offered immigrants by this State, reported that the committee was not prepared to report, as more time was required than had been allowed them to prepare a suitable address. On motion, further time was allowed the committee.

Dr. H. H. Robinson, of New Hanover, from the committee on Permanent Organization, reported the following Constitutional By Laws:

ARTICLE I—TITLE.

The title of this Association shall be the North Carolina Immigration Association.

ARTICLE II—OBJECT.

The object of this Association shall be to aid in immigration to this State of such foreigners as it shall conceive will serve our citizens as laborers, servants, mechanics, tenants and purchasers of our surplus lands and add to our material wealth and social importance.

ARTICLE III—MEMBERSHIP.

The permanent membership of this association shall consist of such persons as are desirous of availing themselves of its advantages and who do now associate themselves together and pay an admission fee of "one dollar," and of those who are hereafter admitted upon the motion of a member, complying with the same condition. The delegates of Agricultural Clubs and County Societies shall be received upon certificate of associate members subject to the same rules as the permanent membership.

ARTICLE IV—OFFICERS.

Sec. I.

The officers of this association shall consist of a President, two Vice Presidents, Corresponding and Recording Secretary, and Treasurer.

Sec. II.

A Committee shall be appointed by the President, who shall nominate the officers of the association and they shall be elected annually by ballot.

Sec. III.

The Association shall annually elect a Committee to be styled the "Executive Committee of the Eastern North Carolina Immigration Association," whose duty it shall be to procure such Real Estate as shall be required for the reception and comfortable subsistence of Immigrants, and make suitable provisions for their importation and protections. They may employ Agents, or Commissioners and receive donations of land upon such conditions as may be conducive to the interest of the donors and this association, and keep up such intercourse with the real estate owners of the State as shall be mutually beneficial.

ARTICLE V—DUTIES OF OFFICERS,

Sec. I.

The President shall preside at all of the meetings, preserve order and perform the customary duties of his office. His official signature shall be required to all instruments binding the consent of this association.

Sec. II.

The Vice President shall preside in the absence of the President and in case of any permanent disability or death of the President he shall perform the duties of President.

Sec. III

The Corresponding and Recording Secretary shall conduct the necessary correspondence of the association, keep a full and correct minute of all its proceedings, preserve its papers and records, give due notice of all its meetings and perform all the duties that usually appertain to the office.

Sec. IV.

The Treasurer shall have the keeping and disbursement of the funds of the association, paying out the same upon the warrant of the President, and making an annual report of the same, with the vouchers, which shall be audited by a committee.

ARTICLE VI—MEETINGS.

The Association shall hold semi-annual meetings, the time and place to be appointed at the previous meeting.

ARTICLE VII—FUNDS.

Sec. I

The funds for the current expenses of the association shall be raised by the fees received for the admission of members, and assessments of one dollar upon each member thereof, the names of such members as fail to pay the assessment to be stricken off.

Sec. II.

The Executive Committee shall have power to receive donations, procure loans, lay temporary taxes or advances upon immigrants and fix such terms upon the individuals benefitted by their operation as they shall find necessary. They shall make an annual report of all their doings to the association at the end of their operative year.

ARTICLE VIII—AMENDMENTS.

Amendments to this Constitution may be made by unanimous consent or under objection lie over until the succeeding meeting.

On motion of Col. Jno. D. Powers, the Constitution was adopted.

On motion of Dr. Falson, a Committee of one from each county, with the Hon. W. T. Dortch, as chairman, was appointed to place in nomination permanent officers for the Convention, which Committee reported as follows:

For President—Dr. S. S. Satchwell, of New Hanover.

For Vice Presidents—Jas. S. Woodard, of Wilson, and Thos. H. Atkinson, of Johnston.

Corresponding and Recording Secretary—Jordan Stone, of Halifax.

Treasurer—Edward B. Borden, of Wayne.

Executive Committee—Hon. Wm. T. Dortch, of Wayne, Dr. A. J. DeRosset, of New Hanover, and Col. S. L. Fremont.

On motion of Mr. McMillan, Messrs. G. Busbee, of Wake, Jas. S. Woodard, of Wilson, and W. H. Oliver, of Craven, were appointed a committee to prepare an address setting forth the advantages afforded to immigrants in our midst, translate the same into such languages as may be desired by the Executive Committee, and have the same published for distribution in foreign countries—the same to be done at as early day as may be practicable.

On motion of Dr. Robinson, of New Hanover, it was ordered that the Association highly approve of and endorse the efforts and enterprise of Mr. Julius A. Bonitz, of the Goldsboro Daily Messenger, looking to the early publication of a German paper in Goldsboro, and that the Association adopt such paper as its organ, pledging it a hearty support.

Messrs. W. T. Dortch, of Wayne, and Jas. S. Woodard, of Wilson, heartily endorsed Mr. Bonitz and his new enterprise.

The agents of the Association, Messrs. Atkinson and Truch, and the Executive Committee, were empowered to settle all matters concerning the manner and place of bringing immigrants to this country. The Executive Committee is to see to them on their arrival here.

On motion, each member of the association was appointed a Committee to obtain additional members, the same to be forwarded to the Secretary, Mr. Jordan Stone, at Weldon, N. C., together with the one dollar initiation fee.

On motion of Dr. Satchwell, the Hon. W. T. Dortch was instructed to invite one or more speakers to address the Association at its next meeting.

On motion, the meeting adjourned to meet again in Goldsboro' on the first Friday in April next.

S. S. SATCHWELL, Ch'm'n.

THE EXERCISES OF THIS INSTITUTION will be resumed on Monday, the 4th of January next, under the direction of Miss MARGARET E. MITCHELL, as Principal, aided by Mrs. E. N. GRANT, and other competent instructors.

It is the determination of the Trustees and Principal that this shall be a School of the best grade.

No other guaranty of its character will be asked, by those who know Miss Mitchell and Mrs. Grant, that the Trustees deem it right to state that those ladies are daughters of the late Professor Mitchell, of Chapel Hill, and were educated by their father with a view to the profession of teaching; and that they combine, with unusual attainments, a happy faculty for imparting instruction, and a thorough devotion to the business, which they have prosecuted with success for some years.

The undersigned, on behalf of the Principal, will furnish circulars stating terms, &c., on application.

NOTICE.

ETNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY has paid another loss. Read the following:

$3,000.

WILMINGTON, Sept. 16th, 1868.

Received of the Etna Life Insurance Company, by the hands of W. H. Crow, General Agent, Three thousand dollars, in full payment of all demands upon the Life Policy of my deceased husband, Larkin F. Bunn. No. of said Policy 48,793.

With many thanks for this prompt payment in the hour of my affliction and need,

I am, respectfully,

HESTER A. BUNN.

Added to the above, may be mentioned another fact, proving the wisdom and beneficial results of Life Insurance, and also the fidelity and good faith in which this old and well tried Company deals with its members.

In less than three years this Company has done more than all others combined, to relieve the wants of the widows and orphans of North Carolina.

It has paid Policy	No. 15,975	....	$3,000
" "	10,818	....	5,000
" "	18,977	....	5,000

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 3, 1868.

THE LEGISLATURE.

This body has been in session nearly three weeks, and has done virtually nothing of a practical character. It is overwhelmingly Radical, and yet, on almost every occasion, thus far, it has manifested an unrelenting partizan spirit. It is, we fear, as incompetent as it is Radical. That is its exact measure in this respect, and it is incapable, we are greatly apprehensive, of doing a generous and manly thing. If we are mistaken, we shall gladly recognise the fact.

The legislation that needs to be done is very much, and of the gravest importance to the State and people, but all this is entirely lost sight of, and the time is wasted, at a daily expense to the State of over fifteen hundred dollars, in the worse than foolish discussion of trifling and fruitless resolutions and motions. The principal object seems to be, to plunder an already impoverished and down-trodden people of the little that is left them.

We learn that applications have been made to increase the State debt several millions of dollars, and we predict that such applications will be successful. It is well understood, by the well-informed, that two or three "carpet-baggers" carry the Radical part of the Legislature in their pockets. This is no secret here, and the "Governor" sympathizes with the adventurers.

Hurrah for the "carpet baggers!" They have one merit; they are true to themselves and each is for himself. They came to get what they could and in every way they could. Who is disappointed? They prey upon the body politic, by and through stupid and illiterate tools. Hurrah for the "carpet-baggers!" Take all the "rebels" have, using the Radicals as cat's-paws; then take the little the Radicals and negroes have, and go back to Cape Cod and Buzzard's Bay, and enjoy your well earned and honestly obtained gains! Hurrah for the "loil" people! Hurrah for the Radicals, and especially their measureless patriotism!

Of what a mockery, and worse than a mockery, is this Radical Legislature! It is the personification of stupidity and meanness! It is the embodiment of revenge and hate, thrust upon a brave but helpless and oppressed people, in the day of their calamity, by men of their own race and country, in the hour of victory and triumph! Shame upon them! History will record their shame in letters as lasting as time itself. Yea, and they will live yet to regret, in patriotic sorrow, such madness, and to witness the recoil of their own acts of fury and folly upon themselves and the country. They may injure, mock at, humiliate, impoverish and oppress us, but the wave of calamity that they have so mercilessly rolled over us, will certainly return upon them by and-by.

We have our eye upon this Legislature. If it does aught that is good, we will cheerfully note such acts to its credit, and be ready to reciprocate them, but its deeds of evil we intend to lay bare before the people, and to make up the record for the future that time will not efface.

The handful of Conservative men in this body can do very little. They are all gentlemen of excellent moral worth, and some of them men of talent and promise; but they can do nothing. Ignorant white men and negroes mock at them, and if they venture to make a suggestion, the fact that they make it is sufficient to secure its rejection. It is a sad pity for the people that a spark of self-respect cannot be enkindled in the bosoms of many of these Radicals. If this could be done, they would be ready to act upon the suggestions of men of practical wisdom, who have the true interests of the people at heart.

WHO ARE CARPET BAGGERS?

One of the Senatorial Major-Generals of Holden's Militia,—we mean Mr. Willie D. Jones, of Forestville, this line,—affirmed, a day or two since, that the Sentinel had stigmatized every Northern man in the State as a carpet bagger. We deny the allegation, but the charge affords us an opportunity of explaining precisely what class of men we embrace under the appellation.—Let us cite a case, not imaginary, by any means, but still impersonal, though, whomsoever the cap fits, let him wear it.

The war breaks out. It affords a fine opportunity for a man, living in Massachusetts, Indiana or Ohio, who is shingled over with debt at home, or who has fallen into bad repute among his neighbors, on account of questionable practices, to avoid the consequences of either or both by "entering the army." He has no idea of fighting, though great swelling words of death and fury are on his lips. The progress of the war finds him in multifarious bomb-proof positions,—it may be as a Quartermaster, or, more likely, a Sutler, where, in the one case, he cheats the soldiers by retailing stolen or damaged goods at an enormous price, or, in the other, impresses fine horses, for "government use," and finds ready sale for them on personal account.

The surrender puts a stop to his contraband gains,—he is afraid to return home,—he has acquired a talent for swindling which seeks other fields of adventure and operation. The negro of the South presents himself as the most facile dupe, and he accordingly rides the credulous creature, full of fictitious gratitude to the "man what helped to set him free," into office and place, for which he is altogether unfitted, and which he could no more have obtained at home than he could have gotten into respectable society there. Once in place, he is actuated only by a two-fold desire, viz: To fill his own pockets, with a view to an ultimate change of base, and to wreak a mean and cowardly revenge upon an unoffending people, who, though impoverished, are not so poor in spirit but that they scorn and despise him and his infamous pretensions. Conscious of his villainy, wearing it in his face, shunned of all decent people, this is the veritable "carpet-bagger." Others may assimilate him, and the distinction may sometimes, therefore, be too loosely drawn, but this is the genuine article.

Now we know many very worthy Northern men, who have settled in our midst with better feelings and objects,—men, too, who hold office, though, in all such cases, we think that modesty should have suggested a refusal to accept public station for some time to come, at least. Such men we are pleased to welcome in their private relations, and, though they may differ from us politically, to award them all ot credit that they may acquire. We do not call them "carpet baggers," and when "Maj. Gen." Jones accuses us of so "stigmatizing" men of this latter stripe, he is simply shooting as wildly as he did at Roanoke Island.

"LET THE GALLED JADE WINCE."

"Bribery and corruption" have ever been justly regarded as crimes of the darkest hue, deserving the condemnation and execration of every honest man and true patriot. Legislators should not only be free from these crimes, but should also be above suspicion. Every honest man will court investigation with reference to his conduct, for, being honest, he has nothing to fear from the most searching examination; and, what is more, every honest man will aid and encourage every effort that is made to purify and cleanse the fountain of law and order and to keep it pure.

There has been a strong impression, almost amounting to conviction, on the minds of the community, that the votes of some members of the Legislature have been bought and sold. We have not a shadow of doubt about it.—While we are not prepared to charge it, direct, we believe that "itching palms" have been shown. We believe that Northern adventurers and Southern cormorants have struck hands to enrich themselves at the expense of the State of North Carolina. We confidently believe that there is a "Ring" here, embracing foreigners and natives, whose only purpose is to put money in the purses of its members,—the foreigner hoping to escape to other climes with the ill-gotten booty, and the native thinking, perhaps, that the State will repudiate the obligations thus fraudulently obtained, and thus secure to him the comfortable reflection that he has only, after all, cheated the Northern capitalists, &c.

We feared there was no hope of relief, and are glad to find that our fears were unfounded. The Senator from Craven has moved on the "Ring's" works, and from the commotion, which, we learn, has been raised in some quarters, it is evident that his fire has done good service. What means this talk about "Smelling Committee," about Mr. Sweet's "deserting the Republicans"—what mean the attempts that are being made, we hear, to ridicule an investigation? No charges are made against any particular individual. We certainly make none. When a particular individual feels it necessary to protest his innocence,—when any one, in or out of office, in any way attempts to hinder investigation, we at once conclude, and we will bet odds that our conclusion is a right one, that he has had the palm greased, that he has handled the greenbacks, or that he has had something or other given to him or sold to him at an extremely low rate! "The galled jade winces."

The man, as a general principle, the world over, who opposes investigation into charges of corruption, made against members of any body of which he may be a component part, gives proof of such a want of integrity, as places him side by side with the guilty, and exposes him justly to the suspicion of having been originally bought, or of having been purchased to shield from the punishment they deserve the original transgressors. When you hear any one attempting to change the issue and to prate about the objects of the mover of such resolutions, or when you hear any one speak of smelling Committees, and such stuff, why spot that man—that's all!

For our part, we care not what Mr. Sweet's political views are. All we want is "the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth." "Let justice prevail though the heavens fall." Truth and justice are of no party, and the only reason why any one should shrink from an investigation, if any do, is because his deeds are evil, and, hence, he loves darkness more than light, or because, justice being done, he would be placed in a certain building, and permitted to rusticate in a magnificent park of eight thousand acres!

We thank Mr. Sweet for what he has done. He may be abused, maligned, persecuted, but it will be only by the vicious, the corrupt and degraded. Every honest, honorable man in the State will respect him for his course in this matter.

A CANDID CONFESSION.—"Our own correspondent" of the New York Times writes to that paper from this State, that:

"Had the prominent leaders of the party in this State been men of character and standing, North Carolina would have rolled up a majority of 40,000 for Grant."

Coming from an intensely Radical source, this is a rich and open admission. As the evidence of both parties upon this matter now harmonizes, the matter in dispute may be regarded as settled.

A negro is elected from Louisiana to the 40th Congress, and will be on hand in December to claim this seat,—but the white Radical M. C.'s won't let him in,—mark our prediction. They don't like to associate with negroes any more than the Democrats. N. Y. Express.

Legislature of North Carolina.

SENATE.

WEDNESDAY, Dec. 2, 1868.

The President stated that, owing to sickness, the Principal Clerk had failed to make up his Journal of yesterday, and, on motion, the reading of the Journal was dispensed with.

On motion, leave of absence was granted Messrs. McLaughlin and Wilson.

On motion of Mr. Barrow, the Senate took a recess of fifteen minutes in order to give the Assistant Clerk an opportunity of making up the Journal of yesterday.

At the expiration of that time, the Journal was read, amended, and approved.

Mr. Sweet arose to a question of privilege. He noticed the following article had appeared in the Standard, of this City, of to day, to wit:

"PRACTICAL RECONSTRUCTION.—We are glad to observe that now the election is over there are signs of the coming affiliation of political opponents. As an evidence of this fact, we need only point to the entente cordiale existing between Senator Robbins, of Rowan, and Senator Sweet, of Craven, both of whom aspire to be the representative men of their respective parties in the Senate. Senator Robbins claims to be a Democrat and Senator Sweet claims to be a Republican, yet so complete is the sympathy between them that it is really difficult to tell which is the Democrat and which the Republican. They have become moral Siamese twins, and their separation now would be almost impossible, and the only existing doubt is which party can claim both of them."

He said that the charges made in this article were as false as hell, and no man knew it better than the author of this article. He was a Republican and maintained the principles of that party as inherently right. Mark me, Senators, this article was written for a Malign purpose. The key which will unlock the hidden mystery of this assault will be with the guilty parties, who are opposed to the investigation of corruption which is placed in the hands of the Committee, who have that matter under consideration; and every individual, who seeks to impair confidence in this investigation, is in league with the filth of this corruption, and his course will be so construed by the public at large and held up to the scorn and contempt of honest men.

As to political aspirations, Mr. President, I have no political aspirations, and no man can say that I have, at any time, by word or act, shown any desire to promote my own interest to the detriment of the State. My only desire, as a Senator of North Carolina, is to promote the interests of the State, and the author of that infamous lie knew it when he penned it. The guilty scoundrels are trembling like aspen leaves, because they know that these charges can be sustained. In order to cripple the investigation, this malicious attack was made.

A. H. Galloway, (colored,) suggested that a Committee be raised to inquire if such an article appeared in the Standard, and, if so, if it was true.)

Mr. Sweet said he appreciated the wit contained in the proposition, and would suggest that it be forwarded, at once, to the Drawer of Harper's Magazine.

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS.

By Mr. Blythe: A bill for the redemption of real estate sold under execution. Referred to the Committee on the Judiciary and ordered to be printed.

By Mr. Smith: A bill to amend the Charter of the Atlanta, Tennessee and Ohio Rail Road Company. Referred to the Committee on Internal Improvements and ordered to be printed.

By Mr. Cook: A bill for the relief of P. T. Massey and E. G. Hill, of the county of Johnston. Referred to the Committee on Propositions and Grievances.

By Mr. McLaughlin: A resolution instructing the Public Treasurer to itemize the articles which appear in his report, under the head of incidental expenses, amounting to over $35,000. Laid over under the rules.

By Mr. Reppas: A resolution proposing to raise a Committee to investigate the affairs of such Banks as the State is interested in. Adopted.

By Mr. Shoffner: A resolution authorizing the President of the Senate to issue a certificate allowing mileage to both the Pages.

Mr. Shoffner said that it appeared from the Journals that mileage was only allowed one of the Pages; one of them had already drawn, and he thought it but right that they should both be allowed it. The resolution was adopted.

By Mr. Barnes: A resolution instructing the Committee on the Judiciary to report, by bill or otherwise, some way to expedite the removal of tenants. Adopted.

Bill in relation to obtaining license to practice Law. (This bill allows those who have attained license to practice law in the County Courts, to practice in the Superior Courts, without paying an additional tax.) Passed its third reading.

On motion of Mr. Davis, the vote, by which the bill to incorporate the North Carolina Mutual Home Insurance Company was laid on the table, was reconsidered, in order to allow the friends of the bill to present it in a more acceptable form. It was referred to the Committee on Corporations.

Bill in relation to the Supreme Court came up. [This bill instructs the Justices of the Supreme Court to deliver an opinion, relating to any Constitutional questions of State, (and amended by including "or United States,") out of term time.]

The bill was discussed at some length,—Messrs. Sweet, Osborne, Winstead and Robbins opposing its passage. Messrs. Hays, Barrow, Welker and Lassiter favored its passage.

Mr. Winstead moved its reference to the Committee on the Judiciary, pending its consideration.

On motion of Mr. Moore, of Carteret, the Senate adjourned until to-morrow at 11 o'clock.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

WEDNESDAY, Nov. 28, 1868.

The House was called to order at 10 o'clock.

Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Long, of Chatham, of the House.

Mr. Pou arose to a question of privilege. He said he had been made to say, in the Standard, of yesterday, in the debate upon the question of petitioning Congress to remove disabilities from the citizens of this State, "that Congress did want instruction from us." His language was "that Congress wished information, and had, at various times, sought it."

Mr. Seymour presented a petition from the citizens of Newbern, asking for a Ferry. Referred.

RESOLUTIONS.

By Mr. Welch: A resolution in favor of W. W. Medford, late County Court Clerk of Haywood.

Mr. Welch, after explaining the justice of the claim, asked for a suspension of the rules, in order to adopt at once.

Mr. Seymour opposed the motion to suspend, and thought the matter should go to a Committee.

Mr. Pou said he had a resolution of a similar character to offer and he thought they should go before the Committee on Propositions and Grievances.

Mr. Welch's motion to suspend was put and lost.

By Mr. Pou: A resolution in favor of E. G. Hill, late Sheriff of Johnston County.—Referred.

Mr. Seymour would move that the Committee be instructed to report on these resolutions, to-morrow. Carried.

BILLS.

By Mr. Parker: A bill to modify the stay law. Referred.

By Mr. Seymour: A bill to provide for the private examination of married women. Referred.

By Mr. Candler: A bill to authorize W. D. Justice, former Sheriff of Henderson county, to collect the taxes due him for the years 1866 '67. Referred.

By Mr. Malone: A bill to amend sec. 3, chapter 87, Revised Code, in reference to divorces. Referred.

Mr. French: A bill entitled an act to better carry out the provisions of article 7 of the Constitution.

By the same: A bill regulating the weighing of rosin in the Port of Wilmington.—Referred.

By B. W. Morris, (colored,): A bill to amend an Act entitled an Act to establish a Laborer's and Mechanic's lien. Referred.

A message was received from the Governor, transmitting the certificate of the Secretary of State, showing the vote cast for Electors. Ordered to be printed.

CALENDAR.

Mr. Seymour's bill, changing the name of the Pitt County Female Institute to Aurora Female College, passed its second reading.

The bill, instructing the Committee on Corporations to report a bill to provide for a registration of voters in cities and towns, and setting apart a day on which to hold municipal elections, was next taken up and passed its second reading.

By consent, J. H. Harris, of Wake, colored, from the Special Committee appointed to consider the matter, reported back the bill extending the limits of the City of Raleigh, and recommending that it do pass.

(This bill amends the Charter for the purpose of establishing a Criminal Court.)

From the same Committee: Mr. Gibson presented a minority report.

(This report sets forth that Article 4th, of the Constitution reads, "The General Assembly shall provide for the establishment of special Courts for the trial of misdemeanors in cities and towns, when the same may be necessary." The bill under consideration proposes to extend the Charter of the City of Raleigh, so as to embrace the County of Wake, for a special purpose; whereas the above section of the Constitution contemplates "cities and towns," to all intents and purposes. The Constitution, in its spirit and letter, does not propose to incorporate counties in order to create the necessity for special Courts, but only to provide for such necessity, when it actually exists; in other words, the necessity creates the Court, and not the Court the necessity.)

J. H. Harris, of Wake, (colored,) defended the majority report and moved to suspend the rules and adopt.

Mr. Malone opposed the motion; he wished time for consideration.

The motion to suspend was put and lost.

The resolutions introduced by Mr. Estes, raising a Joint Committee to investigate the affairs of the Bank of North Carolina, and the Bank of the State of North Carolina, came up.

Mr. Estes said the reason that led him to introduce the resolution was that he had been requested to do so by the Superintendent of Public Works. The State was largely interested, and charges had been made, in the press, that the affairs of those banks had been grossly mismanaged. It was the duty of this Assembly to the people to have a thorough investigation of the matter. He moved an amendment to the original, so as to include the Cape Fear Bank.

The resolution, as amended, was adopted.

A message was received from the Senate, notifying the House of the passage of a joint resolution in reference to block mailing, announcing Messrs. Sweet, Robbins and Forkner, on the part of the Senate, and asking the concurrence of the House.

Mr. Sinclair said that if there was any such corruption in this Assembly, as this seemed to intimate, he was glad measures were going to be taken to ferret out the guilty parties. But this was no resolution, but a bill, and, therefore, he moved to have it printed.

Mr. Estes said this was a very grave matter. The honor of every man here was in some way reflected upon. A careful consideration was necessary. He moved to amend Mr. Sinclair's motion to print, by making the matter the special order for Saturday next, at 11 o'clock.

Mr. Pou saw no reason why the House should delay, one hour, the passage of the resolutions, by discussing motions to print them or to make them the special order for any future day.

He was glad he did not know what member or members were accused or suspected of corruption. It was enough, that a Senator had distinctly made the charge, in his place, on the floor of the Senate, that a member of the General Assembly had been bribed with money, and that he could prove it.

We should lose no time in taking steps for the investigation. We are all resting under the imputation at this moment. Let the investigation proceed without delay.—Let the innocent among us be speedily vindicated. Let the guilty be damned.

The objection that the resolutions empower the Committee to do unconstitutional acts is entirely without foundation.—They do not propose that the Committee try any man and punish him, if found guilty. That will be the business of the Courts. If the Committee should find that any member of this house has corruptly disposed of his vote on any measure, this House would expel such a member as not worthy to sit here and legislate for the people of North Carolina. And, here, the action of this House would end.

The resolution declare that the Committee shall have plenary powers to compel the attendance of witnesses. That is proper and is supported both by reason and precedent.

The Committee is not empowered to punish any one for false swearing before the Committee, but the act of false swearing is declared to be perjury, for which the person so offending shall be liable before the Courts (not before the Committee) to indictment and punishment.

It is also objected that females might be compelled to appear and testify before the Committee. If females are supposed to know anything in regard to the truth of the charges, let them be compelled to appear before the Committee. They all owe it as a sacred duty, either to innocence, to protect it from unjust charges,—or to the State that nurtures them, to save her from rapine.

If women know anything let the Committee hear it. None are too humble to have the right to testify; none are so high in station as to enjoy immunity from that duty.

Let the resolutions, then, pass to-day.—Let us vote down all motions to print or to postpone.

Mr. Estes said the reason he wished to have the affair made the special order was because this was no resolution, but a regular Star Chamber enactment. There was a Senator who had pledged his word and honor that he would find somebody guilty of this corruption, and every power was given him in this instrument before us now to keep his pledge—even to make a man criminate himself. He (Mr. Estes) was perfectly willing that the gentleman should be allowed every latitude to sift the matter to the bottom, but here is a series of what they call resolutions, giving a set of men unheard of powers as a Committee.—The House should have the privilege of making any amendment it sought fit. He did not wish to retard the matter in the slightest, and would amend his motion so as to make it the special order for to-morrow.

J. H. Harris, of Wake, (colored,) wished to have the matter cleared, but he was opposed to giving the Committee more power than any Court in the land possessed. He continued for some time in opposition to the resolution, in its present shape.

Mr. French was in favor of postponing until to morrow morning.

Mr. Argo said it was perfectly legitimate to arraign any citizen, who even offered a bribe to State officers or members of this body. They could be brought to the bar of the House and be reprimanded or imprisoned. It had been done. Congress had done it, &c.

Mr. Ingram said he thought this one of the plainest propositions ever submitted to a Legislative body. It simply asks for a Committee and the necessary authority to make it effectual. This resolution came from the Senate, after a full consideration, and he was surprised to hear it more than once said, in this House, that it emanated from a star chamber. In reply to this, he would say that if it is a star chamber, about two-thirds of its members belong to our (the Republican) party.

Mr. Durham said that, as far as the Constitutional objections that were urged against the resolutions were concerned, they amounted to nothing, simply because none of any substance really existed. The Committee only asked power to ask questions. If they should propound a question to any member, to which he might refuse to answer, on the ground that it would have the effect to criminate himself, he could come before the bar of the House and say so.—The Committee wished to have the power to compel witnesses to answer legitimate questions.

Mr. Estes wished to know if a man should be asked a question, and refused to answer it, on the ground that it might tend towards criminating himself, could the Committee compel him to do so?

Mr. Durham: "Certainly not, sir." Mr. D. continued in some further remarks to show the unreasonableness of the objections to the resolutions.

After some further debate, the House, on motion, took a recess until 1 o'clock, in order to witness the ceremony of balloting for President and Vice President of the United States, by the Electoral College.

On re assembling, the House adjourned, without any further transaction of business.

FEMALE STABBING AFFAIR.—We understand that during Court, last week, at Marshall, Madison County, a woman by the name of Nancy Drew attacked a woman by the name of Susan Landers and stabbed her in several parts of the body. We have learned that jealousy was the impelling cause, but the unfortunate victim was mistaken, by the perpetrator of the deed, for another person. We are pleased to state that Susan is recovering from her wounds.—Asheville News.

NEW ARRANGEMENT.

The RALEIGH SENTINEL having passed under the Editorial management of the undersigned, it will, from the present date, be conducted by him.

It will be the zealous and fearless advocate of the CONSTITUTION of the United States, seeking to bring the people back to their ancient reverence for that immortal instrument, and to restore the policy of the country to that honored standard, as the only guarantee of National prosperity.

It will do justice to the men and measures of the present day, whenever they may merit it, but it will unsparingly lash and denounce all who set themselves up in opposition to the Federal Constitution, and hold up to the public indignation corruption and imbecility in high places.

It will ardently seek the promotion of the best interests of North Carolina,—moral, educational, material and political.

THE LATEST NEWS

From every quarter, both by mail and telegraph, will be as refully collated and presented.

Full and correct market and financial reports will be given.

And, in one word, no effort will be spared to make the SENTINEL, in all respects, a reliable

FIRST CLASS NEWSPAPER.

The SENTINEL has already the largest subscription in the State, and, as its columns and circulation attest, is an unsurpassed medium for advertising.

The friends of the paper and of the cause it advocates are earnestly solicited to aid in its further circulation.

MISCELLANEOUS.

To the People of the Southern States.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3, 1868.

When the pure medicinal restorative, now so widely known as Wolfe's Schnedam Schnapps, was introduced into the world under the endorsement of four thousand leading members of the medical profession some 20 years ago its proprietor was well aware that it could not wholly escape the penalty attached to all new and useful preparations. He, therefore, endeavored to invest it with strongest possible safeguard against counterfeiters, and to render all attempts to prosecute it difficult and dangerous. It was submitted to distinguished chemists for analysis, and pronounced by them the purest spirit ever manufactured. Its purity and properties having been thus ascertained, samples of the article were forwarded to ten thousand physicians, including all the leading practitioners in the United States, for purposes of experiment. A circular, describing a trial of the preparation and a report of the result, accompanied each specimen. Four thousand of the most eminent medical men in the Union promptly responded. Their opinions of the article were unanimously favorable. Such a preparation, they said, had long been wanted by the profession as no reliance could be placed on the ordinary liquors of commerce, all of which were more or less adulterated, and therefore unfit for medical purposes. The peculiar excellence and strength of the oil of juniper, which formed one of the principal ingredients of the Schnapps, together with an undisputed character of the Amsterdam ecrement, give it, in the estimation of the faculty, a marked superiority over every other diffusive stimulant as a diuretic, tonic and restorative.

These satisfactory credentials from professional men of the highest rank were published in a condensed form, and enclosed with each bottle of the Schnapps as one of the guarantees of its genuineness. Other precautions against fraud were also adopted; a patent was obtained for the article, the label was copyrighted, a fac simile of the proprietor's autograph signature was attached to each bottle and cork, his name and that of the preparation were embossed on the bottle, and the corks were sealed with his private seal. No article had ever been sold in this country under the name of schnapps prior to the introduction of Wolfe's Schnedam Schnapps, in 1851; and the label was deposited, as his trade mark, in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York during that year.

It might be supposed by persons unacquainted with the daring character of the pirates who prey upon the reputation of honorable merchants by vending deleterious trash under their name, that the protections so carefully thrown around these Schnapps would have prevented the introduction and sale of counterfeits. They were, however only to have stimulated the cupidity of impostors. The trade mark of the proprietor has been stolen; the bad cognac which he discards as unfit for his Aromatic Schnapps is now offered by the medical profession has been denied by mendacious humbugs; his labels and bottles have been imitated, his advertisements purchased, his circulars copied, and worse than all, dishonorable retailers, after disposing of the genuine contents of his bottles, have filled them up with common gin, the most deleterious of all liquors, and thus made his name and brand a curse for poison.

The public, the medical profession, and the sick for whom the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps is prescribed as a remedy, are equally interested with the proprietor in the detection and suppression of these nefarious practices. The genuine article, manufactured at the establishment of the undersigned, in Schiedam, Holland, is distilled from a variety of the finest quality, and flavored with an essential extract of the berry of the Italian juniper, of unequaled purity. By a process unknown in the preparation of any other liquor, it is freed from every acrimonious and corrosive element.

Complaints have been received from the selling physicians and families in the Southern States of the sale of cheap imitations of the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps in those markets; and travellers, who are in the habit of using it as an antidote to the baneful influence of unwholesome river water, testify that cheap gin, put up in schiedam bottles, is frequently passed off upon the unwary. The agents of the undersigned have been requested to institute inquiries on the subject, and to forward to him the names of such parties as they may ascertain to be engaged in the atrocious system of deception. In consideration, the undersigned would say that he has produced, from under the hands of the most distinguished men of science in America, proofs unanswerable of the purity and medicinal excellence of the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps; that he has expended many thousand dollars in surrounding it with guarantees and safeguards, which he designed should protect the public and himself against fraudulent imitations; that he has shown it to be the only liquor in the world that can be uniformly depended upon as unadulterated; that he has challenged investigation, analysis, comparison, and experiment in all its forms; and from every one of the preparations which bear his name, seal and trademark, has come off triumphant. He therefore feels it a duty he owes to his fellow-citizens generally, to the medical profession and the sick, to denounce and to expose the charlatans who counterfeit these evidences of identity and he calls upon the press of the public to aid him in his efforts to remedy a great an evil.

The following letters and certificates from leading physicians and chemists of the city will prove to the reader that all goods sold by the undersigned are all they are represented to be.

UDOLPHO WOLFE.

I feel bound to say, that Imgard your Schnapps as being in every respect pre-eminently pure, and deserving of medical patronage. At all events, it is the purest possible article of Holland Gin, heretofore unobtainable, and as such, may be safely prescribed by physicians.

DAVID L. ROY, M.D.,
Pharmaceutical Chemist, New York.

26 PINE STREET, NEW YORK,
Nov. 24, 1867.

UDOLPHO WOLFE, Esq., Present:

DEAR SIR:—I have made a chemical examination of a sample of your Schiedam Schnapps, with the intent of determining if any foreign or injurious substance had been added to the super distilled spirits.

The examination has resulted in the conclusion that the sample contained no poisonous or harmful admixture. I have been unable to discover any trace of the deleterious substances which are employed in the adulteration of liquors. I would not hesitate to use myself or to recommend to others, for medical purposes, the Schiedam Schnapps as an excellent and unobjectionable variety of Gin.

Very respectfully yours,
(Signed,) CHAS. A. SEELY, Chemist.

NEW YORK 59 CEDAR STREET,
November 26, 1867.

UDOLPHO WOLFE, Esq., Present:

DEAR SIR:—I have submitted to chemical analysis two bottles of "Schiedam Schnapps," which I took from a fresh package in your bonded warehouse, and find, as before, that the specimens of liquor is free from injurious ingredients or "adulteration;" that it has the marks of being aged and not recently prepared by mechanical admixture of alcohol and aromatics.

Respectfully,
FRED. P. MAYER, Chemist.

NEW YORK, Tuesday, Nov. 3.

UDOLPHO WOLFE, Esq.:—

DEAR SIR:—The want of pure Wines and Liquors for medical purposes has been long felt by the profession and thousands of lives have been sacrificed to the use of adulterated articles. Delirium tremens, and other diseases of the brain and nerves, so rife in this country, are very rare in Europe, owing, in a great degree, to the difference in the purity of the spirits sold.

We have tested the several articles imported and sold by you, including your Gin, which you sell under the name of Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps, which we consider justly entitled to the high reputation it has acquired in this country; and from your long experience as a large importer, your Bottled Wines and Liquors should meet with the same demand.

We would recommend you to appoint some of the respectable apothecaries in different parts of the city as agents for the sale of your Brandies and Wines, where the professional can obtain the same when needed for medicinal purposes.

Wishing you success in your new enterprise.

We remain your obedient servants,
VALENTINE MOTT, M.D., Professor of Surgery, University Medical College, New York
J. M. CARNOCHAN, M.D., Professor of Clinical Surgery, Surgeon-in-Chief to the State Hospital, etc., No. 14 East Sixteenth Street.
LEWIS A. SAYRE, M.D., No. 766 Broadway.
H. P. DEWEES, M.D., No. 781 Broadway.
JOSEPH WORSTER, M.D., No. 120 Ninth St.
NELSON STEELE, M.D., No. 27 Bleeker St.
JOHN O'REILLY, M.D., No. 230 Fourth St.
B. I. RAPHAEL, M.D., Professor of the Principles and Practice of Surgery, New York Medical College, etc., No. 94 Ninth Street, and others.

The proprietor also offers for sale

Bottled Wines and Liquors, imported and bottled by himself, expressly for medicinal use. Each bottle has his certificate of its purity.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 3, 1868.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—W. H. & R. S Tucker & Co., announce, this morning, fine Mackskin Hats, Alpine or Tourist Hats, Furs, Boots, Shoes, Cloaks, &c.

Choice Groceries—a most attractive display: Douglas Bell, Fayetteville Street.

Coffee, Syrups, Fruit, Potatoes, Cabbage, Fowls, Wines, Tobacco, Segars, &c: W. H. Jones & Co.

Shirtings, Rope, Twine, Iron Ties, Sole and Upper Leather, N. C. made Shoes, &c: W. H. Jones & Co.

MUNICIPAL.—It is rumored that the "rooly bol" have fixed up their Aldermanic ticket in the Western Ward, viz: Parker Overby, Norfleet Dunston and —— Backalan. Two darkeys and one white man, or two white men and one darkey,—we don't know which, and really care less. The meeting, it is said, expressed their preference for Mr. A. S. Lougee, for Mayor,—a new Richmond in the field. Where's Collards?

COMMUTED.—We learn that the Governor has commuted the sentence of Willis, the negro soldier who was to have been hung to-morrow, for the murder of Anderson Selby, to imprisonment on the 8,000 acre tract for life. The Governor had previously respited him, for four weeks. The next thing will be his pardon, we suppose.

HON. JAS. W. OSBORNE.—This gentleman, Senator from Mecklenburg, we are glad to see, is in his seat. Pressing business in the Courts prevented his earlier attendance.

LOOK OUT FOR FUN.—Wyman, the celebrated Magician, will visit this City in a few days, for the purpose of giving a series of his Soirees Magiques. We learn that Tucker Hall has already been engaged for his entertainments. Wyman is not only the oldest and best Magician in the country, but his Gift distributions are genuine. It is not unfrequently the case that a ticket holder draws a barrel of Flour or $5 or $10 in greenbacks.

MR. MAJOR GENERAL Martindale (oh! how we delight to dwell on these titular euphonies!) cut quite a figure in the Senate, on Tuesday. He introduced a series of very ridiculous resolutions, for the dignified and Senatorial purpose, as he declared, of retaliating upon the sentinel. This paper had cited an expression of Judge Story's, as peculiarly applicable to these degenerate times, and the Major General wanted an inquest to decide whether Judge Story really said what was quoted, and, if so, was what he said true?

If the militia-man was in earnest, we applaud his desire for information. He probably knows nothing about Story.

If he was in jest, the joke is about as bad and pointless as that memorable anecdote, which he narrated on the night of the September Radical torch-light procession in this City, which was duly and faithfully reported in the Sentinel, at the time.

GOV. BROWNLOW, the large edition of our Governor, puts just two limits to the restoration of citizenship in Tennessee, and here they are:

"If the time should ever come when they should be thus restored, I submit that it would probably be when the last dollar of the national debt incurred in suppressing the rebellion has been paid, and when these unrepentant, unreconstructed rebels had restored to the ballot box the half million loyal voters who now sleep in premature graves."

Here is a specimen brick of the simon pure Radical edifice. In his day Brownlow means that no man shall vote who is not a Brownlowite. "The Federal debt must be paid, which probably measures several generations of time, and the dead rise from the graves." Try again, Parson. One such Christian effort deserves another trial at least. There is nothing like being thorough when you set about it. Eternal disfranchisement and eternal punishment seem to be the prayer of the Rev. Brownlow. He'll get the latter, certain.

The Alabama Legislature wants to pass a law—will probably pass it—declaring it no crime to shoot and kill a person abroad in disguise after dark. A Christian law that, truly. What kind of a government is it that finds a necessity for such enactments? Is there another country on the face of the globe, christian and civilized, any province, or part of which, has such a law as that? See to what murders it could give legal sanction! Who would decide what constituted a disguise? A man in the habit of wearing a black coat might be shot for suddenly taking a fancy to take an evening ramble in a white one. But of such repulsive novelties is the kingdom of reconstruction!—N. Y. Express.

ELECTORAL COLLEGE.

The College assembled in the Senate Chamber, on yesterday, at 30 minutes past 12 o'clock.

Mr. Jos. W. Holden read the Governor's Proclamation, setting forth the vote each Elector had received, and called the roll.

A. H. Galloway, (colored,) nominated C. H. Brogden as President of the College.

The nomination being put to the College, Mr. B. was elected unanimously and proceeded to the chair, escorted by Mr. Holden.

On taking his seat, he read quite a prosy speech, from a manuscript which laid before him. At the conclusion of the address, Mr. McDonald nominated R. M. Douglas as Secretary, and he was accordingly appointed.

Mr. Stilley moved that the College proceeded to ballot for President of the United States. The motion was put and carried.

Gen. Barringer then nominated Ulysses S. Grant, Mr. Laflin seconded the nomination, and Messrs. Barringer and Laflin were appointed to superintend the ballot.

The Secretary then, under the supervision of the tellers, proceeded to count the votes—reading aloud the name of each Elector found upon the ticket—and the President announced that U. S. Grant, of Illinois, had received the whole Electoral vote.

Mr. Holden then put Schuyler Colfax in nomination as Vice President of the United States, and Mr. Pearson seconded it.

Exactly the same ceremonies were gone through with, as in the balloting for President.

On motion of Mr. McDonald, the College then proceeded to certify, sign and seal the Electoral returns.

After the election of a messenger and votes of thanks to the Senate, President of the College, and the Secretary, the College adjourned.

Upon the adjournment, notice was given that a scotch would be presented to A. H. Galloway, by his colored friends, as the first colored member of any Electoral College in the Union.

THE TRUTH OF HISTORY—JOHNSTON'S SURRENDER TO SHERMAN.

Wilkes' Spirit (New York) vouches for the perfect authenticity of the following statement:

It now falls to our lot to show that the responsible author of the Sherman-Johnston agreement was not Gen. Sherman, but President Lincoln. The facts which we are about to relate were brought to our knowledge during this last summer, and were committed to paper at the time. There were obvious reasons why they should be withheld until after the election; but there is no objection now to their being laid before the public, and we are especially glad to have an opportunity of doing so, because this journal, among others, was unjust to Sherman at the time of the surrender.

On the 27th of March, 1865, two or three days before the final movement upon Richmond, Gen. Sherman, fresh from his march to the sea, arrived at City Point for the purpose of conferring with the President and General-in-Chief. Mr. Lincoln was then on board of the gunboat Queen, and on that day an interview took place on the boat between the President, Gen. Grant, Gen. Sherman, and Admiral David D. Porter. From one of the parties of this interview, a gentleman connected with the Spirit of the Times obtained a verbal narrative of what took place. There was no pledge of secrecy, and we feel we violate no obligation in making public the substance of it. "Mr. Lincoln," said the narrator, "had come down to City Point with the most liberal views towards the rebels, and was willing that they should capitulate on almost any terms. His heart was tenderness throughout, and so long as the enemy laid down their arms, he did not care how it was done. After hearing from Sherman a description of his position, he proposed that the same terms should be offered to Johnston that would have been given to Lee. To this Gen. Sherman strenuously objected, declaring that he had Johnston cooped up, and he could not get away, and that he would be compelled to surrender at all hazards, whatever terms we proposed. I never saw him more energetic in my life than when he was arguing this point; but Mr. Lincoln leaned towards milder measures, fearing that the Confederate General would escape South by the railroads, and have to be chased again. Sherman declared this to be impossible. 'I have Johnston,' said he, 'where he cannot move without breaking up his army, which, once disbanded, can never be got together again.—The Southern Railroads are all broken up. I have destroyed them so that they cannot be used for a long time.'

"Gen. Grant asked: 'What is to prevent their laying the rails again?'

'Why,' said Sherman, 'my bummers don't do things by halves. Every rail has been placed over a hot fire, and twisted as crook as a ram's horn. They never can be used again till they have been through a rolling mill!'

The President, however, was very decided about the matter, insisted that Johnston should be induced immediately to surrender by granting him most liberal terms. Grant, too, was anxious that Johnston should not try to get into Richmond, where he might give us a great deal of trouble; and Sherman was compelled to yield, though he did it very unwillingly. The terms of capitulation which afterwards made such a disturbance were in fact substantially arranged by Mr. Lincoln himself, and if he had lived he never would have allowed Sherman to bear the responsibility of them.

This narrative is conclusive. Mr. Lincoln, it is now clear, virtually dictated the terms to Johnston, just as he did the terms to Lee; and had it not been for his kindness of heart, we have no doubt that Grant would have exacted "unconditional surrender" in the one case, and Sherman have been equally peremptory in the other. Had the President not been assassinated before Johnston's capitulation, it is probable that the celebrated memorandum would have been acceptable to a majority of the Northern people. It is certain, at all events, that Sherman would not have been to blame for it. The patience with which he has borne undeserved obloquy so long will be appreciated by his countrymen, and they will not fail to honor the elevated sentiment through which, when a single word would have vindicated him, he refrained from speaking it.

THE FORTY-FIRST CONGRESS.—Many members of the Forty-first Congress are said to favor a meeting in March to elect a Speaker, and then immediately adjourn.

"No man in England thinks of blacking his own boots," said an Englishman to Mr. Lincoln. "Whose boots does he black?" Mr. Lincoln asked.

For the Sentinel.

A MORNING VIEW OF THREE DIGNITARIES OF THE PRESENT STATE GOVERNMENT.

Scene: Thiem's Saloon.

Hour: Decidedly matutinal.

Surroundings: A little dreary, as they are apt to be at 6 A. M.

At a table, with chair tipped back, but supported against the wall, sat the eldest of the three, his face shaded from public view, by the Standard, but unfortunately it was upside down. (Possibly, though, that was well enough, as the doings in the Legislature, the day before, were so decidedly after that order, that it might be the easiest way to read them.) Glancing over the tip of the paper we recognized a well known face, but no returning sign of recognition gave us encouragement to shake hands.

While hesitating what to do, a voice at the open door, "won't you take a drink?" recalled us to ourselves, and we proceeded to salute the second honorable member.—"Hav'nt been home since yesterday morning," said the new comer, and whatever we may do in general, we had no reason, from present appearances, to doubt the truth of this particular statement.

Passing through the Capitol Square, we walked into Republican Headquarters, and there found the third dignitary, seated at the same table we had seen him just twelve hours before. His head was bowed down upon his hands, and so immersed was he in thought that it was impossible to rouse him. So we gave it up, concluding that, if put upon oath, we could swear to the back of his head, and to that particular grout, if nothing else. We did not care to stop again, and came away saying, "Verily we are reconstructed."

Q.

FROM ARKANSAS—A TOWN SACKED AND ALL THE CITIZENS ARRESTED—THREE CITIZENS SHOT.—Memphis, November 28—The Appeal's Arkansas correspondence says that on the 10th instant a body of two hundred men claiming to be military entered the town of Centre Point, Sevier county, arrested all the inhabitants, marched them into an open field, placed a guard over them, and then proceeded to sack the town; after which they left. The next day the citizens of the adjoining county flocked into the town, and a meeting was held to express the sentiments of the people in regard to the outrage. While the meeting was progressing, the same body of men dashed into the town and opened an indiscriminate fire upon the assembly, shooting a number of them, and arresting three of the oldest and best citizens, named Hester, Anderson, and Gilbert. They carried them out to a field and shot them. The band is still in possession of the town.

SOUTHERN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.
PURELY A SOUTHERN INSTITUTION.

PRINCIPAL OFFICES:
Atlanta, Georgia; Memphis, Tennessee; Louisville, Kentucky.
CAPITAL STOCK, $228,500.
Nett Assets of the Company, July 1st, 1868, $230,949.66.

Insures lives, and promptly adjusts and pays losses. Its principal business is with Southern States, and to them it appeals for patronage. It has ample means to fully protect Policy holders and pay all losses.

The "Southern" combines the advantage of both note and cash system, stock and mutual—each as chooses to pay cash may do so and secure a non-forfeitable policy and all the advantages of a Cash Company. The privilege of a permanent loan for one-third is granted to all who desire it.

It makes investments at home in good and reliable securities, thereby tending to make money more plenty in our midst, and to aid in developing the resources of our section and to stop the annual drain of over six Million Dollars, which are being sent North for Life Insurance.

Its profits are equitably distributed among Policy holders and Stockholders.

In its organization are presented men of experience in Life Insurance and their aim will be to make the "southern Life" the exponent of the business, enterprise and progress of the present day.

UNIVERSAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY — A GOOD MAN Leaveth an INHERITANCE — NEW YORK.

No extra charge for Foreign. No charge for Medical Examination, Policies or stamps.

THE
LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,
NEW YORK.
Office, No. 60, Liberty Street.

The Original Joint Stock Life Insurance Company in the United States.

The business of this Company is EXCLUSIVELY confined to the insurance of first-class healthy lives.

THE DISTINCTIVE FEATURE of the Stock system of Life Insurance, as opposed to the MUTUAL, is a low rate of premium for a stated sum assured, which is IMMEDIATE, SECURE, and CERTAIN; in lieu of a high rate of premium for a promised dividend which is UNCERTAIN, CONTINGENT, and UNCERTAIN; this so-called dividend being merely a return of a portion of the excessive and unnecessary premium charged in the first instance.

ILLUSTRATION.

Suppose that an individual aged thirty desires to devote $200 per year for the purpose of effecting an insurance on his life; this amount will immediately secure him in the "Universal" the sum of $11,751, payable on his decease. This sum, paid to a Company charging the ordinary mutual rates, would secure him the sum of $8,474.

The difference between these sums ($3,277) is exactly the same as an immediate bonus or addition to the policy to be paid by the former office to the heirs of the policy in case of the early death of the insured. It is true that if the insured, in an office charging high rates, live long enough, and have his periodical dividends added to his policy, the sum may equal or surpass that above named; but it must not be forgotten that the chance of early death is the very thing the applicant desires to insure against, and consequently the greater the sum immediately secured contingent on this event, the greater the advantage to the policy-holder.

To illustrate the importance to the policy-holder of low premiums in more general terms it may be stated that by a reduction of twenty-five per cent in the rate of premium, the same amount of money will secure a policy thirty three and one-third per cent greater and likewise that a reduction of twenty-five per cent. in the rate of premium is precisely equivalent to an annual cash dividend of thirty three and one-third per cent., payable in advance, or to a dividend of forty-five per cent, payable at the end of five years.

By the Stock plan the full cash effect of the premium is immediately secured to the insured, the Company taking all the risk. By the Mutual plan, the full value in insurance of the premium paid is not secured to the policy-holder, who takes a portion of the risk himself.

Rates to Secure $1,000 at Death.

AGE	Ordinary Life	Ten Payments	AGE	Ordinary Life	Ten Payments
25	$14.92	$20.60	45	$26.07
30	17.02	26.44	50	30.00	39 18
35	19.76	40 53	55	36 95	50 74
40	23.47	45 51	60	45 00	63 80

All the improved descriptions of Life and Endowment Policies issued on the Stock plan at greatly reduced rates.

Policies issued at rates less than those charged by Mutual Companies, guaranteeing the return of all premiums paid in addition to the amount insured.

Policies issued at rates less than those charged by Mutual Companies, guaranteeing a cash action of fifty per cent of the premium after the third annual payment.

The undersigned having been appointed General Agents for the States of North and South Carolina, for the above STERLING Company, desire Agents in all the principal towns and sections in said States. To live and energetic Agents, who are WILLING and ANXIOUS to work liberal terms will be entered into. COMMISSIONS GOOD.

FALLING LEAVES.

They are falling, slowly falling,
Their sere upon the forest side,
Severed from the noble branches
Where they waved in beauteous pride.
They are falling in the valleys,
Where the early violets spring,
And the birds in sunny spring-time
For their dulcet music sing.

They are falling, sadly falling,
Close beside our cottage door,
Pale and faded like loved ones,
They are gone forevermore.
They are falling, and the sunbeams shine in beauty soft around;
Yet the faded leaves are falling,
Falling on the mossy ground.

They are falling on the streamlet,
Where the silver waters flow,
And upon their placid bosom
Onward with their waters go.
They are falling in the churchyard,
Where our kindred sweetly sleep,
Where the idle winds of summer
Softly o'er the loved ones sweep.

They are falling, ever falling,
Where the summer breezes sigh,
Where the stars in beauty glisten,
Bright upon the midnight sky.
They are falling when the tempest
Moans like ocean's hollow roar!
While the tuneful winds and billows
Sadly sign forevermore.

They are falling, they are falling
While our sanctioned hearts will go
To the sunny days of childhood,
In the dreamy long ago;
And their faded leaves remind us
Of the blasted hopes and dreams,
Ended like the fated leaflets
Cast upon the icy streams.

CLASS OPINIONS—A FABLE.—A lamb strayed for the first time into the woods, and excited much discussion among other animals. In a mixed company one day, when he became the subject of friendly gossip, the goat praised him.

"Pooh!" said the lion, "this is too absurd. The beast is a pretty beast enough, but did you hear him roar? I heard him roar, and by the manes of my fathers, when he roars he does nothing but cry ba—a—a!" And the lion bleated his best in mockery, but bleated far from well.

"Nay," said the deer, "I do not think so badly of his voice. I liked him well enough till I saw him leap. He kicks with his hind legs in running, and with all his skipping gets over very little ground."

"It is a bad beast altogether," said the tiger. "He cannot roar; he cannot run; he can do nothing; and what wonder? I killed a man yesterday, and in politeness to the new comer offered him a bit; upon which he had the impudence to look disgusted, and say, 'No, sir; I eat nothing but grass.'"

So the beasts criticised the lamb, each in his own way; and yet it was a good lamb, nevertheless."—Charles Dickens.

Winchester Repeating Rifle!

TWO SHOTS A SECOND!!

THE ATTENTION of Dealers and Sportsmen is invited to this improved weapon, now becoming extremely popular wherever it is known. Gen. Wade Hampton says of it:

"I regard the Winchester as the most effective fire-arm I have ever seen. Its accuracy is remarkable, while its range and penetration equal any gun I have used. In my opinion, it is the best breech-loader yet invented."

Two sizes are made: A rifle, weighing nine and a-half pounds and carrying seven cartridges in magazine. Price $42.50. And a Carbine, weighing seven and a half pounds and carrying thirteen shots in magazine. Price $40. Cartridges $4 per hundred. Calibre of both arms is same as Colt's Army Pistol 44-10 inch.

Ten per cent. discount on orders for dozens of a kind.

Sent by Express, C. O. D., on receipt of 25 per cent. of price. Liberal terms to the trade. For descriptive Circulars, &c., address
